

WORKING STUDENT - BRAND SOLUTIONS

The opportunity

Become a part of Zalando's mission to build one of the world's top tech brands by joining our team as a working student. This is a job where you will be challenged on a daily basis. You are encouraged to bring your own ideas with you and to think outside the box. You will support our Operational Team by working closely with our brands and internal stakeholders. In addition to that you can even develop and execute your own projects from end-to-end. How cool is that?

What we are looking for

- You are currently an enrolled student majoring in technology, (marketing, business...)
- Excellent communication skills with a results-oriented approach to what you do
- Self-starters who dive into projects and see them through to the end
- Fluency in written and spoken English; other languages are a plus
- You are available appr. 20 hours per week

Your responsibilities

- As part of a dedicated team you are responsible for the support of our Content Management System and other inhouse products
- You work very closely with our brands and internal stakeholders
- You may also support the team to improve the tools and the processes
- Together with our technical specialists you look for error analysis and the documentation process

What you can expect from us

- To learn more than you ever thought possible, about a variety of topics related to the nuts-and-bolts of Brand Solutions
- Colleagues who are strategic, transparent, supportive and encouraging - we like and help each other get things done
- An international, diverse, stimulating work environment that's buzzing with activity and ideas
- Cool office atmosphere in the heart of Berlin
- Honest and helpful feedback
- Insight into team-building and project management
- Fun!
