

Ad for Kroener Dean's International Fellowship in Business

The Indiana University Kelley School of Business seeks candidates for the Peter and Monika Kroener Dean's International Fellowship in Business. The fellowship is for a Ph.D. or M.B.A. student and the award value will be at minimum 20,000 USD per year.

About Indiana University

Indiana University (IU) Bloomington attracts students from around the globe who seek a world-class university and business school experience. Founded in 1820, IU Bloomington is the flagship campus of Indiana University's eight campuses statewide. Innovation, creativity, and academic freedom are hallmarks of IU Bloomington and its recognized contributions in research and the arts. www.iu.edu

The Kelley School of Business

The Kelley School of Business is a world-renown, top-ranked business school, as evidenced by Princeton Review 2016 -- #1 Best Professors and #10 Best Campus Environment and among Forbes' top 20 schools of business. At Kelley, an innovative curriculum built on personal development, teamwork, and experiential learning with an emphasis on global and social responsibility is taught. Kelley graduates have the integrity, commitment, and authenticity needed to persevere. They see risk as a challenge, not a barrier, and they know what it takes to make tough decisions for the right reasons.

Our curriculum also incorporates international experiences. Business truly is global, and we continue to build upon our extensive existing collaborations with international partner schools and global businesses—providing our students, from the undergraduate to the executive level, opportunities not just for a cultural exchange, but real leadership experience dealing with critical business issues on a worldwide scale.

The Kelley School offers degrees in Accounting, Business Analytics, Business Economics and Public Policy, Business Law & Ethics, Finance, Management and Entrepreneurship, Marketing, and Operations and Decision Technologies.

Being a Kelley means you are part of a wonderful tradition that extends for more than 100 years and is shared by nearly 100,000+ living alumni—more alumni than any other business school in the world. The Kelley network extends across the globe. www.kelley.iu.edu

The Fellowship and Applicant Criteria

Whereas the donors are both graduates of the Indiana University Kelley School of Business and are native Germans, they wish to provide funds to attract high-caliber, native German speaking European students to the Kelley School Ph.D. or MBA programs. The award is solely based on academic and/or professional merit and independent of financial need.

Students applying to the Kelley School MBA Program who meet the fellowship criteria will be considered for the award. <http://kelley.iu.edu/MBA/Admissions/InternationalApplicants/page38393.html>

For Ph.D. candidates, individuals will need a 690 or better GMAT score, and three years of work experience. To apply, please visit: <http://kelley.iu.edu/Doctoral/Admissions/page13870.html>
