

BERLIN COLLOQUIUM

RESEARCH IN ECONOMIC HISTORY

WINTER 2010/11

27. Oktober 2010 (FU)

Nikolaus Wolf (Berlin)

“Agricultural Productivity across Prussia during the Industrial Revolution: A Thuenen Perspective”

10. November 2010 (FU)

Moritz Schularick (Berlin)

“Financial Crises and External Imbalances: 140 Years of Lessons”

17. November 2010 (HU)

Hans Christian Heinemeyer (Berlin)

“Does Wage Rigidity explain Non-neutrality of Money during the Great Depression?”

24. November 2010 (FU)

Christiaan Bochove (Utrecht)

“Intermediaries and the secondary market for government bonds in the Dutch Republic”

01. Dezember 2010 (HU)

Kirsten Wandschneider (Los Angeles)

“Lending to Lemons: Landschafts-Credit in 18th century Prussia”

08. Dezember 2010 (FU)

Franz-Julius Morche (Heidelberg)

“Business Networks as Complex Systems - Analysis and Contextualisation of Historical Trade Networks”

15. Dezember 2010 (HU)

Paul Sharp (Copenhagen)

“Religious Orders and Growth in Pre-Industrial England: Growth through Cultural Change”

26. Januar 2011 (HU)

Martin Uebele

09. Februar 2010 (HU)

Lars Börner (Berlin)

16. Februar 2011 (FU)

Pierre-Cyril Hautcoer (Paris)

The BERLIN COLLOQUIUM takes place on Wednesdays from 16-18. The location alternates between Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin (HU) [Spandauer Str. 1 Room 21b] and Freie Universität Berlin (FU) [JFK-Institute Lansstr. 7-9 Room 340].