

Via Direct Exchange to St. Petersburg State University

Spend a semester at the Faculty of Economics

Since 2015 the Faculty of Economics of the State University of St. Petersburg (SPBU) and the School of Business & Economics and the East European Institute of Freie Universität are proud to have established a direct exchange program.

Apply now for the winter term 2018/19!

The program is open to FU students of these programs:

- M.Sc. in Economics
- M.Sc. In Public Economics
- M.A. in East European Studies

5 places are available for one semester .

Students are eligible to a DAAD scholarship covering travel costs, health insurance, semester fees and a monthly rate for living expenses.

Application deadline :
23.03.2018

What 's on offer at the Faculty of Economics in St. Petersburg State University:

Graduate courses in English from the semester program

„International Trading System“:

- Microeconomics-Advanced Level
- Macroeconomics-Advanced Level
- Econometrics-Advanced Level
- Modern Information Technologies in Economics
- Modern Trends in International Trade
- Quantitative Methods in International Trade Analysis
- Economic Systems of Foreign Countries-Advanced Level
- International Finance Part 1-Advanced Level
- Mathematical Methods of Economic Analysis
- Countries in the System of World Trade Organization
- Current Issues of International Trade and International Law
- Globalization and Regionalization in World Economy
- Commercial Diplomacy
- Theory and Practice of International Commerce
- International Finance Part 2-Advanced Level
- Modern Trends of International Business Development

In addition for Russian speakers graduate courses from various M.Sc. Programs

More information and application process

Sandra Hallscheidt

international@wiwiss.fu-berlin.de

<http://www.wiwiss.fu-berlin.de/internationales/index.html>