

Information on the submission of language certificates*

(updated on June 16, 2008)

According to our current state of information, requested language certificates can be handed in later, if

- the exam itself was passed prior to the expiry of the application period and

- a corresponding confirmation is attached to the application documents.

* This information is subject to change and is not legally binding.
For detailed information please contact the admission office.