

Call for Papers:
Internal Berlin School of Economics
Gender Economics Workshop

March 17, 2025 – DIW Berlin, Mohrenstr. 58, 10117 Berlin

We are excited to announce an upcoming workshop aimed at fostering the exchange between all researchers in the Berlin area working on topics related to Gender Economics.

We welcome submissions across all subfields of Gender Economics, including, but not limited to:

- Child penalties and gendered effects of parenthood
- Gender norms and stereotypes
- Gender pay gaps and occupational segregation
- Policy evaluations around gender equality
- Sexual harassment and domestic violence

The workshop creates an opportunity for BSoE members – Postdocs, faculty, and PhD students – to present their work, exchange with researchers working on similar topics, and receive constructive feedback from peers.

Submission Guidelines: All interested participants are invited to email their extended abstract/draft to Lavinia Kinne (lkinne@diw.de) by January 31, 2025.

Notifications of acceptance will be communicated shortly after the submission deadline.

In case of questions please reach out to the (co-)organizers.
